2           THE OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRUSTEE, AND OTHER PARTIES IN
3           INTEREST:

4           PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, on November 6, 2023, Richard A. Marshack, Chapter 11
5 Trustee (the “Trustee”) of the bankruptcy estate (the “Estate”) of The Litigation Practice Group, P.C.
6 (“LPG” or the “Debtor”) in the above-captioned bankruptcy case (the “Case”), filed with the United
7 States Bankruptcy Court, Santa Ana Division, located at 411 W. Fourth Street, Santa Ana, California
8 92701, the Honorable Scott C. Clarkson, United States Bankruptcy Judge, presiding, this Notice Of 9 Motion And Motion Pursuant To Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004 And L.B.R. 2004-1 For An Order Requiring 10 The Production Of Documents By The Custodian Of Kevlar Capital, LLC (the “Motion”). The 11 Motion is made pursuant to Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2004 (“Rule 2004”) and L.B.R. 2004-1 (“Local Rule
12 2004”) to require the production of documents by Kevlar Capital, LLC (“Kevlar”), by its authorized 13 custodian of records. Specifically, the Trustee seeks an order providing that:

14           1.       Upon service of a subpoena on Kevlar, it shall produce for inspection and copying
15 by the Trustee the documents and things described in Exhibit "1" to the attached subpoena (the 16 “Documents”) and an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury attesting to compliance
17 with the subpoena. The Documents shall be produced at or before 10:00 a.m. on November 27,
18 2023 at the offices of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP located at 655 W. Broadway Street, Suite 800, San 19 Diego California 92101, Attn: Yosina Lissebeck.

20           2.       The Trustee is authorized to issue a subpoena as necessary to compel such 21 document production.

22           3.       If Kevlar withholds any Document(s) on the grounds that such Document(s) are 23 privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, Kevlar shall prepare a privilege log in 24 accordance with the “Instructions” in Exhibit "1" to the attached subpoena and cause it to be 25 delivered to the Trustee’s counsel (i.e., Yosina Lissebeck of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP, 655 W.
26 Broadway Street, Suite 800, San Diego, California 92101) at or before 10:00 a.m. on November 27 27, 2023.

28           ///

1           4.       Such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper is granted.

2           The Motion is made under Rule 2004 and Local Rule 2004-1 on the grounds that the Trustee
3 is investigating the financial activities of the Debtor and related entities, and potential claims for relief
4 related thereto. On January 26, 2023, C T Corporation System (“CTC”) filed a UCC-1 Statement No.
5 U230006246724 (“Statement”) against the Debtor with the California Secretary of State. On or about
6 July 18, 2023, counsel for the Trustee sent a letter to CTC asking it to identify the creditor that used
7 them to file the Statement. CTC refused to identify this party without a subpoena. On August 17,
8 2023, the Trustee filed a Motion for a Rule 2004 Examination of CTC, and an order granting this
9 Motion was entered on August 24, 2023. After service of the order, CTC produced responsive
10 documents on September 22, 2023 that identified Kevlar as the creditor who caused the Statement to 11 be filed. On or about September 25, 2023, counsel for the Trustee wrote to Kevlar regarding the 12 Statement and its relationship with the debtor. As of November 5, 2023, Kevlar has not responded.
13 The Trustee does not know if any amount is still owed to Kevlar or any of the details of the 14 relationship/transaction between Kevlar and the Debtor.

15           Information regarding whatever transaction that caused the Statement to be filed, including 16 information on any payments or transfers made pursuant to the transaction are needed to assist the 17 Trustee in reconstructing the Debtor’s pre-petition financial condition and to draft a chapter 11 plan
18 for this case. Because there is no adversary proceeding or contested matter in which this discovery
19 would be appropriate, the Trustee may not proceed under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7030 or 9014.

20           As set forth in the attached declaration of Yosina Lissebeck (“Lissebeck Decl.”), pursuant to 21 L.B.R. 2004-1(a), the Trustee has attempted to contact Kevlar regarding its relationship with the 22 Debtor. There has been no response. Per the New York Department of State, Division of 23 Corporations, Kevlar’s New York Agent for Service of Process is: THE LLC, 1191 Broadway Ave,
24 Brooklyn, NY, 11221. As of the filing of this motion, no response has been received.

25           The Motion is based on this Notice of Motion, the attached Memorandum of Points and 26 Authorities, the attached Lissebeck Declaration, the attached exhibit(s), and the pleadings and 27 records on file in case, of which the Court is requested to take judicial notice.

28           PLEASE TAKE NOTICE that, pursuant to Local Rule 2004-1(f):

1           The party whose examination is requested may file a motion for
2 protective order if grounds exist under FRBP 7026 and F.R.Civ. P.
3 26(c). A motion for protective order must be filed and served not less 4 than 14 days before the date of the examination, and set for hearing not less than 2 days before the scheduled examination, unless an order shortening time is granted by the court pursuant to LBR 9075-1.

5           Any motion for a protective order must be filed with the Court and served on the Trustee,
6 the Court, and the Office of the United States Trustee as follows:

2                   I.

3                   INTRODUCTION

4                   Richard A. Marshack, Chapter 11 Trustee (the “Trustee”) of the bankruptcy estate (the 5                   “Estate”) of The Litigation Practice Group, P.C. (“LPG” or the “Debtor”) in the above-captioned
6                   bankruptcy case (the “Case”), submits this Memorandum of Points and Authorities, through his
7                   undersigned counsel, in support of his motion (the “Motion”) for an order under Rule of Bankruptcy
8                   Procedure 2004 (“Rule 2004”) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 2004-1 (“Local Rule 2004”) requiring the 9                   production by Kevlar Capital, LLC (“Kevlar”) of the documents described in Exhibit "1" to the 10                  attached subpoena along with an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury attesting to 11                  compliance with the subpoena.

12                  II.

13                  STATEMENT OF FACTS

14                  On March 20, 2023, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title
15                  11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), in the United States
16                  Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California (the "Court").

17                  On May 4, 2023, the Court entered the Order Directing United States Trustee to Appoint a
18                  Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 58], and on May 8, 2023, the Trustee filed his Acceptance of 19                  Appointment as Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 63]. Since his appointment, the Trustee has served
20                  in this capacity and has started his investigation of the Debtor’s pre-petition business and transactions.
21                  In the years before the filing of the petition, numerous parties filed UCC-1 Statements against the
22                  Debtor with the California Secretary of State. On August 17, 2023, the Trustee filed a Motion for a
23                  Rule 2004 Examination of CT Corporation System which filed a UCC statement on January 25, 2023
24                  (“Statement”). An order granting this Motion was entered on August 24, 2023. After service of the 25                  order, CTC produced responsive documents on September 22, 2023 that identified Kevlar as the 26                  creditor who caused the Statement to be filed. On or about September 25, 2023, counsel for the 27                  Trustee wrote to Kevlar regarding the Statement and its relationship with the debtor. As of November
28                  ///

1 5, 2023, Kevlar has not responded. The Trustee does not know if any amount is still owed to Kevlar
2 or any of the details of the relationship/transaction between Kevlar and the Debtor.

3 III.

4 RULE 2004 AUTHORIZES PRODUCTION OF DOCUMENTS

5 Without knowing the details of whatever transaction happened between the Debtor and
6 Kevlar, or if any amounts are still owed to Kevlar the Trustee cannot review, evaluate, and understand
7 the Debtor's pre-petition business and financial affairs. This also complicates the drafting and
8 confirmation of a chapter 11 plan. The Trustee requests production of documents from Kevlar
9 regarding its relationship and transactions with the Debtor.

10 IV.

11 THE REQUESTED RULE 2004 ORDER SHOULD BE GRANTED

12 Rule 2004(a) provides as follows: "On motion of any party in interest, the court may order
13 the examination of any entity." Rule 2004(b) provides that a Rule 2004 examination "may relate 14 only to the acts, conduct, or property or to the liabilities and financial condition of the debtor, or to 15 any matter which may affect the administration of the debtor's estate . . ." "[I]t is well-settled that 16 Rule 2004 discovery enjoys a broad scope, regardless of any background state law issues."

17 Dynamic Finance Corp. v. Kipperman (In re North Plaza), 395 B.R. 113, 122 (S.D. Cal. 2008).
18 "The scope of a Rule 2004 examination is extremely broad and has often been likened to a lawful 19 'fishing expedition.'" In re Lufkin, 255 B.R. 204, 209 (Bankr. E.D. Tenn. 2000).

20 A. The Trustee Has Tried to Meet and Confer

21 Pursuant to Local Rule 2004-1(A), on or about August 15, 2023, the Trustee's counsel wrote
22 to Kevlar regarding its relationship with the Debtor that caused the Statement to be filed. As of 23 November 5, 2023, no entity has contacted the Trustee or appeared in this case on behalf of Kevlar.
24 The Trustee must be able to know if Kevlar is a creditor with a potential security interest and to know
25 the details of whatever transactions occurred between Kevlar and the Debtor. See, Lissebeck Decl., 26 ¶¶ 3, 4 & 5. Without this information, the Trustee's ability to draft and confirm a chapter 11 plan and 27 to pursue potential claims of the estate is hindered.

28 ///

B. No Adversary Proceeding or Contested Matter

The Trustee cannot obtain the information sought by the requested Rule 2004 production of documents and examination under Fed. R. Bankr. P. 7030 or 9014 because the Trustee is not a party to any pending adversary proceeding where the Rule 2004 production would be relevant. Lissebeck Decl., ¶ 7.

C. Kevlar's Contact Information

Per the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations, Kevlar's Agent for Service of Process is: THE LLC, 1191 Broadway Ave, Brooklyn, NY, 11221.

V.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above, the Court is respectfully requested to grant the Motion and enter an order providing that:

1. Upon service of a subpoena on Kevlar, it shall produce for inspection and copying by the Trustee the documents and things described in Exhibit "1" to the attached subpoena (the "Documents") and an affidavit or declaration under penalty of perjury attesting to compliance with the subpoena. The Documents shall be produced at or before 10:00 a.m. on November 27, 2023 at the offices of Dinsmore & Shohl LLP located at 655 W. Broadway Suite 800, San Diego, California 92101, Attn: Yosina M. Lissebeck.

2. The Trustee is authorized to issue a subpoena as necessary to compel such document production and examination.

3. If Kevlar withholds any Document(s) on the grounds that such Document(s) are privileged or otherwise protected from discovery, such entity shall prepare a privilege log in accordance with the "Instructions" in Exhibit "1" to the attached subpoena and cause it to be delivered to the Trustee's counsel (i.e. Yosina M. Lissebeck, 655 W. Broadway Suite 800, San Diego, California 92101).

DECLARATION OF YOSINA M. LISSEBECK

I, Yosina M. Lissebeck, declare as follows:

1. I am an attorney in the bankruptcy practice group at Dinsmore & Shohl LLP (“Dinsmore” or the “Firm”), special counsel to Richard A. Marshack, Chapter 11 trustee (the “Trustee”) for The Litigation Practice Group, P.C. (the “Debtor” or “LPG”) in the above-captioned bankruptcy case (the “Case”). I am one of the attorneys at Dinsmore that represent the Trustee. I have personal knowledge of the facts in this declaration and, if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently thereto. Capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the same meanings ascribed to them in the pleading to which this declaration is attached.

2. The Court may take judicial notice of the following:

(a) On March 20, 2023, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq. (the “Bankruptcy Code”), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Central District of California (the "Court").

(b) On May 4, 2023, the Court entered the Order Directing United States Trustee to Appoint a Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 58], and on May 8, 2023, the Trustee filed his Acceptance of Appointment as Chapter 11 Trustee [Docket No. 63]. Since his appointment, the Trustee has served in this capacity and has started his investigation of the Debtor's pre-petition business and transactions.

(c) The Debtor only identified three secured creditors on Schedule D filed herein.

3. Despite this, a post-petition search of the Debtor's name in the UCC registry maintained by the California Secretary of State showed that more than 20 unreleased UCC-1 statements were of record against the Debtor as of the Petition Date, including UCC Filing No. U230006246724 filed with the California Secretary of State against the Debtor on or about January 26, 2023.

4. Kevlar did not respond to attempts to discuss its transactions with the Debtor and if any debt remained outstanding.

5. Without information regarding the lending or transaction history between the Debtor and Keylar or if any amounts are still owed to Keylar, the Trustee cannot review, evaluate, and

1 understand the Debtor's pre-petition business and financial affairs. This lack of information also
2 hinders the drafting and proposal of a chapter 11 plan. The Debtor's books and records are of little
3 help in identifying transactions that may be linked to Kevlar.

4       7. To the best of my knowledge information and belief, the Trustee is not a party to any
5 adversary proceeding or contested matter in which the discovery sought by the attached Rule 2004
6 motion would be relevant.

7       8. Based on the New York Department of State, Division of Corporations, Kevlar's
8 Agent for Service of Process is: The LLC, 1191 Broadway Ave, Brooklyn, NY, 11221.

9           I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the 10 foregoing is true and correct.

Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 45(c), (d), (e), and (g) (Effective 12/1/13)
(made applicable in bankruptcy cases by Rule 9016, Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure)

(c) Place of compliance.

(1) For a Trial, Hearing, or Deposition. A subpoena may command a person to attend a trial, hearing, or deposition only as follows:

(A) within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; or

(B) within the state where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person, if the person

(i) is a party or a party's officer; or

(ii) is commanded to attend a trial and would not incur substantial expense.

(2) For Other Discovery. A subpoena may command:

(A) production of documents, or electronically stored information, or things at a place within 100 miles of where the person resides, is employed, or regularly transacts business in person; and

(B) inspection of premises, at the premises to be inspected.

(d) Protecting a Person Subject to a Subpoena; Enforcement.

(1) Avoiding Undue Burden or Expense; Sanctions. A party or attorney responsible for issuing and serving a subpoena must take reasonable steps to avoid imposing undue burden or expense on a person subject to the subpoena. The court for the district where compliance is required must enforce this duty and impose an appropriate sanction — which may include lost earnings and reasonable attorney's fees — on a party or attorney who fails to comply.

(2) Command to Produce Materials or Permit Inspection.

(A) Appearance Not Required. A person commanded to produce documents, electronically stored information, or tangible things, or to permit the inspection of premises, need not appear in person at the place of production or inspection unless also commanded to appear for a deposition, hearing, or trial.

(B) Objections. A person commanded to produce documents or tangible things or to permit inspection may serve on the party or attorney designated in the subpoena a written objection to inspecting, copying, testing or sampling any or all of the materials or to inspecting the premises — or to producing electronically stored information in the form or forms requested. The objection must be served before the earlier of the time specified for compliance or 14 days after the subpoena is served. If an objection is made, the following rules apply:

(i) At any time, on notice to the commanded person, the serving party may move the court for the district where compliance is required for an order compelling production or inspection.

(ii) These acts may be required only as directed in the order, and the order must protect a person who is neither a party nor a party's officer from significant expense resulting from compliance.

(3) Quashing or Modifying a Subpoena.

(A) When Required. On timely motion, the court for the district where compliance is required must quash or modify a subpoena that:

(i) fails to allow a reasonable time to comply;

(ii) requires a person to comply beyond the geographical limits specified in Rule 45(c);

(iii) requires disclosure of privileged or other protected matter, if no exception or waiver applies; or

(iv) subjects a person to undue burden.

(B) When Permitted. To protect a person subject to or affected by a subpoena, the court for the district where compliance is required may, on motion, quash or modify the subpoena if it requires:

(i) disclosing a trade secret or other confidential research, development, or commercial information; or

(ii) disclosing an unretained expert's opinion or information that does not describe specific occurrences in dispute and results from the expert's study that was not requested by a party.

(C) Specifying Conditions as an Alternative. In the circumstances described in Rule 45(d)(3)(B), the court may, instead of quashing or modifying a subpoena, order appearance or production under specified conditions if the serving party:

(i) shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship; and

(ii) ensures that the subpoenaed person will be reasonably compensated.

(e) Duties in Responding to a Subpoena.

(1) Producing Documents or Electronically Stored Information. These procedures apply to producing documents or electronically stored information:

(A) Documents. A person responding to a subpoena to produce documents must produce them as they are kept in the ordinary course of business or must organize and label them to correspond to the categories in the demand.

(B) Form for Producing Electronically Stored Information Not Specified. If a subpoena does not specify a form for producing electronically stored information, the person responding must produce it in a form or forms in which it is ordinarily maintained or in a reasonably usable form or forms.

(C) Electronically Stored Information Produced in Only One Form. The person responding need not produce the same electronically stored information in more than one form.

(D) Inaccessible Electronically Stored Information. The person responding need not provide discovery of electronically stored information from sources that the person identifies as not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. On motion to compel discovery or for a protective order, the person responding must show that the information is not reasonably accessible because of undue burden or cost. If that showing is made, the court may nonetheless order discovery from such sources if the requesting party shows good cause, considering the limitations of Rule 26(b)(2)(C). The court may specify conditions for the discovery.

(2) Claiming Privilege or Protection.

(A) Information Withheld. A person withholding subpoenaed information under a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial-preparation material must:

(i) expressly make the claim; and

(ii) describe the nature of the withheld documents, communications, or tangible things in a manner that, without revealing information itself privileged or protected, will enable the parties to assess the claim.

(B) Information Produced. If information produced in response to a subpoena is subject to a claim of privilege or of protection as trial-preparation material, the person making the claim may notify any party that received the information of the claim and the basis for it. After being notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified information and any copies it has; must not use or disclose the information until the claim is resolved; must take reasonable steps to retrieve the information if the party disclosed it before being notified; and may promptly present the information under seal to the court for the district where compliance is required for a determination of the claim. The person who produced the information must preserve the information until the claim is resolved.

(g) Contempt. The court for the district where compliance is required — and also, after a motion is transferred, the issuing court — may hold in contempt a person who, having been served, fails without adequate excuse to obey the subpoena or an order related to it.

EXHIBIT "1"

To Subpoena for Production of Documents, Information, or Objects to Kevlar Capital, LLC

INSTRUCTIONS

1. In responding to this subpoena, furnish all documents in your possession, custody or control at the time of production, including documents in the possession, custody, or control of your agents, representatives and assigns.

2. If you claim any form of privilege, whether based on statute or otherwise, as a ground for not producing any document, please state the following:

- a. The date(s) the document was created, sent and received;
  - b. The name, the present or last known home and business address, the telephone numbers, the title (or position) and the occupation of those individuals who prepared, produced or reproduced, or who were the recipients of said document;
  - c. A description of the document sufficient to identify it without reveal the information for which the privilege is claimed including the general subject matter and character of the document (e.g., letter, memorandum, notes);
  - d. The location of the document;
  - e. The custodian of the document; and
  - f. Each and every fact or basis on which such privilege is claimed or on which the document is otherwise withheld.

3. Notwithstanding the assertion of your objection, any requested document which you object to furnishing but which nevertheless contains non-objectable information which is responsive to this request must be produced. That portion of the document for which the objection is asserted may, however, be redacted, provided that the above-requested identification is furnished.

4. Each document requested herein is requested to be produced in its entirety without deletion or excision (except as qualified by Instruction 2 above) regardless of whether you consider the entire document to be relevant or responsive to these requests.

1       5. If any of these documents cannot be produced in full, then produce them to the extent
2 possible, specifying the reasons for your inability to produce the remainder and stating what
3 information, knowledge or belief you have concerning the unproduced portion.

4       6. The documents produced pursuant to this request must be produced in the same form
5 and in the same order in which they existed, or were maintained, in the normal course of business,
6 prior to production. Documents to be produced in the boxes, file folders, binders, or other containers
7 in which the documents are found. The title, labels, or other descriptions of the boxes, file folders,
8 binders or other containers are to be left intact.

9       7.      A search for responsive documents includes all Electronically Stored Information,
10 including responsive emails and other documents found in the Responding Party's personal and/or 11 business account(s).

DEFINITIONS

13 For purposes of this Subpoena, the following definitions apply:

14        1. As used herein, the terms "and" and "or" shall be construed conjunctively and 15 disjunctively so as to acquire the broadest possible meaning.

16        2. As used herein, the term "any" includes the word "all," and vice versa; the singular
17 includes the plural, and vice versa; and the past includes the present, and vice versa.

18       3.       As used herein, the term "ALL COMMUNICATIONS" means and refers to each and 19 every COMMUNICATION known to YOU, and every such COMMUNICATION which can be

12 however transmitted, minutes, lists, agenda, contracts, reports, studies, checks, statements, receipts, 13 returns, summaries, pamphlets, books, inter office and intra office communications, notations of any
14 sort of conversations, telephone calls, meetings, or other communications, bulletins, computer
15 printouts, invoices, worksheets, all forms of drafts, notations, workings, alterations, modifications,
16 changes and amendments of any of the foregoing, graphical or aural records or representations of any
17 kind, including, without limitation, photographs, charts, microfiche, microfilm, videotape, records,
18 motion pictures, and electronic, mechanical, or electrical records or representations of any kind,
19 including, without limitation, tapes, cassettes, discs, and recordings, computer discs, computer tapes,
20 computer cards, computer programs, computer software, computer readable media, machine sensible
21 media, electronically stored media, and any other form of stored information.

22       8. As used herein, the terms “PERSON” and “PERSONS” mean and refer to any natural 23 person, corporation, company, partnership, association, firm, business, trust, or any other legal or 24 fictitious entity.

25       9. As used herein, the terms “TRANSACTION” or “TRANSACTION DOCUMENTS”
26 mean any information or Documents that evidence any sale or other conveyance from or indebtedness
27 of the Debtor to Kevlar, including any loan agreements, promissory notes, security agreements, deeds
28 ///

1 of trust, account control agreements, leases, limited liability company agreements, operating
2 agreements, purchase and sale agreements, lease agreements, or any other similar Documents.

3       10. As used herein, the terms “RELATED TO,” “RELATING TO,” “IN RELATION
4 TO,” “REGARDING,” “REFERRING TO” and “REFLECTING” mean, without limitation, bearing
5 a subject matter relationship to, embodying, discussing, constituting evidence of, bearing a
6 relationship to (in whole or in part), pertaining, or otherwise reflecting, describing, or setting forth
7 the subject matter to which reference is made.
